ZAH News December 2022

President's Message

It has been a very busy month with our last dinner meeting for the year and the 16 Days of Activism.

Sofia Pridgeon provided an interesting and entertaining look at her work as Guide Dog Puppy Trainer with RSB. By the amount of interaction, I think everyone enjoyed Sofia's presentation.

We were very pleased to have Lesley Sieglhoff, Area Director attend the meeting for the induction of our newest member, George (Georgene) O'Rourke. It is great to have you on board George.

The Orange Ladies have made quite an impact in Blackwood being displayed in business windows, the local Council office and even on top of a crane, with orange donuts being enjoyed by many from a local bakery. The production team led by Bev has done an amazing job.

We were very proud to hold our Vigil on Thursday 1 December at Windy Point in remembrance of the women who have lost their lives to violence over the past year. It was wonderful to be joined by fellow Zontians from Mount Barker and Adelaide Torrens Clubs, and also ladies from the Soroptimists. I again found this a moving time to reflect.

Camilla, the Queen Consort at a reception recently at Buckingham Palace spoke on Domestic Violence. She said "it can be hard to know what practical steps we can take to even begin to make a difference .... two of the most powerful ways in which to help were to remember and to listen."

This is an additional Newsletter for the year as I wanted to acknowledge and share our 16 Days of Activism with you.

I hope you all have a safe and happy Christmas shared with family and friends. I look forward to 2023 and working and sharing with you all.

Yours in Fellowship,

Julie Hallifax

We are very grateful to the businesses, the Mitcham Council and Members of Parliament who have supported the 16 Days of Activism by displaying an Orange Lady (or two or even more!).
