President's message

It is that time of year again. Shortly, on Anzac Day, we honour the extraordinary courage and sacrifice of all those who have served, including the often-overlooked contributions of women. From the nurses who tended to the wounded on the frontlines to the countless others who provided essential support and played crucial roles during times of conflict, women have demonstrated remarkable bravery and resilience. Their dedication to duty and service, often in the face of great adversity, is a testament to the spirit of Anzac. We will remember and acknowledge the invaluable role women have played in shaping our shared history and ensuring the freedoms we hold dear. We will place a wreath at the dawn service in Blackwood on Thursday morning.

I am looking forward to the Area 2 Advocacy Workshop on 4 May and thank all of you who have registered so far. As we are looking after registrations, I am very pleased to see the large number of Zontians right across the Area who have registered. It is looking like being a very interesting day. A few ladies have been busy making a variety of marmalade, jams and chutneys for our market place stall – a very big thank you to each of you.

For those of you who attended Sangrias at Sunset last week, I hope you enjoyed the evening as much as I did. Thank you, Coraine for your hospitality. A fun way to spend an evening.

I am looking forward to seeing you all on Wednesday.

Yours in fellowship

Dinner meeting Wednesday 27th March

Juanita Carter, our guest speaker at the March dinner meeting, entertained us with tales of her adventurous lifestyle and unusual travels.

Joy presented her with a small gift and thanked her for her attendance.

Sangrias at Sunset

A small group of members enjoyed a social evening hosted by Coraine, enjoying Sangrias at Sunset, and a magnificent feast provided by her grandson from Melon & Rye.

We welcomed Ellen, George's American guest which led to quite a lively conversation around various phrases, Australian pronunciations and the American's general idea of the dangerous animal-life in Australia. All with a lot of fun.

It was good to see Sharon and Tim home safely from their travels to Nepal and to hear all their experiences.

Thank you, Coraine for your wonderful hospitality, and I encourage anyone to pop into Melon & Rye, 365 Glen Osmond Road, Glen Osmond and support Jake, acknowledging the wonderful spread he provided for us.

Lesley Sieglhoff, Area 2 Director, in conjunction with the South Australian Zonta Clubs, invites you to attend the 2024 Area 2 Workshop on Saturday May 4th 2024, at the Payneham Library.

The theme for the workshop is succession planning and we will be looking at ways that we can both survive and thrive in 2024 and beyond. The Zonta International website says:

As a global organization, Zonta International values the contributions of members of all backgrounds, regardless of age, ethnicity, race, colour, ability, religion, socio-economic status, culture, sexual orientation or gender identity. We believe that a diverse community of members is essential to our ability to achieve our mission to create a more equitable future.

Our keynote speakers for the day are:

“Diversity in Membership”

Sandy Venn-Brown – Director 2022-24 – Zonta International & Zonta Foundation for Women

“Marketing to the Millennials – Making Zonta attractive to the next Generation”
